

Sequachee Valley News.

VOL. XII.

SEQUACHEE, TENN., THURSDAY, MARCH 9, 1905.

NO. 33.

ACCIDENTAL SHOOTING

SON OF TRUSTEE NUNLEY, OF GRUNDY COUNTY, MEETS INSTANT DEATH.

TRACY CITY, Tenn., March 7. News has just reached here of the accidental killing, at the hand of his young friend, Clyde Stroets, of William, the 13-year-old son of Trustee J. B. Nunley, of Grundy county, near their home at that place. His death was the result of an accidental discharge of an old muzzle-loading shotgun and was instantaneous.

PETROS.

Special to the News.

Sam Joyner is in Knoxville on business.

Rev. J. M. Jimison is in Nashville this week.

Jack Nelson has gone to Lexington, Ky., for an escaped prisoner.

Quite a number from here attended the minstrel show at Harrison Saturday night.

The new electric plant here is now in operation. The city will soon be illuminated by electricity.

The B. B. C. & C. Co. has erected a large tank on the hill above town to supply their machinery with water.

Rev. Bassett of Knoxville, has been conducting a revival at the First Baptist Church.

Judge Walton of Rugby, dedicated the Black Diamond Lodge, No. 625, F. & A. M., Saturday night. After the ceremony an elegant supper was served, and the occasion proved very enjoyable to all present.

JASPER.

Special to the News.

Not seeing anything in your paper from this part of the town I will give you a few dots.

Garden planting is the order of the day now.

Dr. Cobleigh of Chattanooga, is visiting here this week.

Sam Simpson of Jasper, is having some nice work done on his place this week.

Fred and Will Campbell of the mountain, were down Monday.

The buyer for Simpson & Alley has gone to Chattanooga to purchase spring goods.

Mr. Alley and Hayden Simpson went fishing Monday, but did not catch anything.

Mrs. Sallie Thach who has been sick for some time, is some better at this writing.

Mrs. Barnett of Sequachee, was visiting her sister, Mrs. Mary Campbell one day last week.

There was a show at the college Monday night.

Cold Wave of the mountain passed through here Sunday. We could not think where Uncle John was going as he does not pass here very often until we saw him come riding back with his little bee under his arm.

Wish the editor and the News a long and happy life, and all the readers. I love the good old paper and am lonesome without it.

Mormon elders have been holding meetings at the courthouse the past week.

Payne Ramsay has been visiting his mother-in-law this week. Peach Bud.

Case Continued.

The case of Havron Bros. & Wood vs. A. Frazier at the recent session of circuit court in Hamilton county, was continued.

The Cincinnati Post

AND

The News,

FOR

$2.25 for One Year.

The Post has a world-wide reputation, and is published daily, and by this combination is placed within the reach of every one.

The News speaks for itself.

Send in Your Subscriptions

SULPHUR SPRING.

Special to the News.

Uncle Philip Ealy is very sick this week.

Misses Alva Andes of Red Hill, is visiting relatives here.

Misses Kizzie and Dorcas Richards called on Miss May Grant Sunday evening.

Mrs. Geo. Smith, of Whitwell, spent last week with her father, Mr. P. H. Ealy.

Mrs. B. B. Alder visited Mrs. J. A. Phelps one day last week.

Little Miss Gladys Grayson, of Red Hill, has returned home after spending several days with her cousins, Mava and Tula Bryson.

G. W. Bryson and B. B. Alder went Whitwell Saturday.

Estil Gott was in this vicinity Monday.

Little Ernest Harris is sick.

Mrs. Walter Jones and children, of Whitwell, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Ed McCurry.

B. B. Alder made a business trip to Victoria Monday.

J. A. Phelps was shopping in Whitwell Tuesday.

Mrs. M. J. Carlton and daughter, Miss Stella, visited P. H. Ealy Sunday.

Quite a number from this place attended church at Oak Grove Sunday.

Mrs. J. Smith and son Herbert, of Cedar Spring was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Smith Sunday.

Miss Electa Andes, of Red Hill, is visiting in this vicinity.

Miss Lillie Gott and Ed Alder were driving in this vicinity Sunday evening.

Miss Mona Phelps spent Sunday night at P. H. Ealy's.

Little Miss Mava Bryson is visiting relatives at Red Hill.

Robt. Morgan and Charlie Price, of Whitwell, passed through this vicinity Sunday.

Rev. A. M. Hunt was visiting church members here Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Harris, of Whitwell, were the guest of relatives here Sunday.

Rollie.

BRUMLEY'S CHAPEL.

Special to the News.

Spring has come and the people are glad to see it.

A large crowd attended Sunday school at the Drum Sunday.

Mr. Paul Murphy visited Mr. G. M. Ransome Sunday.

School has begun at the Brumley schoolhouse. Misses Edith Cyphers and Bettie Pryor are teaching.

Little John Brumley, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Brumley, who has been sick, is improving.

Misses Ellen Bailey, Mattie Houts and Lena Snyder went to the mines Sunday evening.

There was singing at the Drum Sunday evening.

Miss Minnie Ransom visited her sisters at Roope Monday.

The entertainment at Miss B. Sexton's the 25th of February was fine and everybody enjoyed themselves very much. The musicians were as follows: Miss Cella Brumley, guitar; Miss Bertha Sexton, piano and Mr. Walter Sexton, violin.

Miss Mamie Jolly is visiting relatives and friends at Roope.

Harry Ransome has returned to Roope from Whitwell.

Ye writer misses Miss Minnie Ransome since she moved to Kelly's Ferry.

I am the honeysuckle

And you are the bee;

The bee loves Honeysuckle

And I love the Bee.

Honeysuckle.

ROUPE.

Special to the News.

Mrs. Lizzie Baker visited Mrs. E. S. Ransome Sunday.

Paul Murphy visited Miss Minnie Ransome yesterday.

Miss Cella Bromley attended Sunday School at the drum Sunday.

Geo. Colston has returned home from Hot Springs, Ark., but his many friends will regret to learn that he has taken sick since his return.

Mrs. Mabel Pyburn is still improving.

Allen Pyburn visited his father-in-law Sunday.

Miss Bertha Sexton looked very sweet Sunday in her $10 hat.

G. M. Ransome visited his daughter Monday, Mrs. Cora Bromley.

Misses Bettie Pryor and Edith Cyphers begin school at Bromley's school house today.

Harry Ransome is boarding at his uncle's, Geo. Baker's.

There was a dance given by Walter Snyder Friday night.

Harry Ransome visited home folks Saturday night.

Miss Minnie Ransome contemplates accepting a position with a dress making establishment in Chattanooga.

Spring Violets.

CASTORIA.

Be sure the Kind You Have Always Bought

of

RODDY SPRING.

Special to the News.

Work is a little bit dull at this place at present but will make a settlement on the tenth of this month. The union is trying to organize this place as a union camp.

John Fuels of Payne's Cove brought a wagon load of hogs here yesterday.

Charley Thurman was on our streets Sunday.

Chas. Vandergriff and wife and little daughter, Helen, visited Mr. and Mrs. Barney Henderson Sunday.

Frank Caldwell has been visiting in Altamont for a week or more. I guess there is some one who would like to see him return.

Chas. Vandergriff has gone to Sequachee valley to visit his parents.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Roberts returned from Tracy where they have been visiting for several days.

Today is a beautiful sunny day and everyone seems to be enjoying it.

Jack Thompson, of Chattanooga, has come here to join his wife. He will secure a job and stay here.

Miss Carrie Layne called at the post-office Saturday. Wonder if she got a letter.

Miss Lizzie Spencer and children, of Pelham, were visiting Mrs. Vandergriff Saturday night.

Hatten Meadows, of Lickskillet, passed through our town to visit his sister, Mrs. Jas. Woodley.

Jim Colston visited his parents near Dunlap Saturday and Sunday. When he returned he had sold out their things and they had started to Salt Lake City where they will make their future home.

I would like to hear from Sunnyside, Hickory Grove and Looney's Creek. I know a great many of the people in that vicinity. I would also like to hear from New Hope.

I saw pieces in last week's paper from Coalmont and Flat Branch. They are both very near here but if they escape the waste basket there will be one from Roddy Spring. I will ring off.

CAROLINE CHAPEL.

Special to the News.

Planting potatoes and making gardens is the order of the day.

The farmers are putting in good time while the sun shines preparing the summer crops.

The honey bees are humming around the hives. I guess they are hunting for the first flowers.

Aunt Becky Lewis spent the day with Mrs. J. H. Spears Sunday.

W. C. Moore went up the river Sunday.

Clyde Griffith, of Whitwell, was visiting his parents Saturday night.

Monroe Griffith went to Victoria Saturday.

Mel Moore had a smile on his face Sunday eve. He had been to see his best girl.

John R. Roberson, of Jasper, was visiting J. H. Spears Saturday.

We are glad to see J. M. Billingsley able to be out again.

Geo. H. Lewis, Henry Moore and Bob Holt went to Victoria Friday.

J. H. Spears went to Victoria Saturday.

The old lady has stayed in the house so close this cold winter that when she went out to the hen roost to see the chickens, they flew out and ran off to another roosting place. They were so afraid of her.

Miss Sally Moore and little sister, Nettie, visited Mrs. J. H. Spears one day last week.

The old lady's health has been bad this winter but is improving since the cold weather broke up.

Jink.

CRANWELL-BARNETT.

PIKEVILLE, Tenn., March 6.—Mr. A. B. Cranwell and Miss Ida Lee Barnett were quietly married at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. J. P. Barnett, on Occer hill. Rev. Chas. S. Holder solemnized the ceremony. Mrs. Cranwell is a very accomplished and beautiful young woman of Pikeville and was noted for her many accomplishments, especially in music and art. Mr. Cranwell is originally from Baltimore, Md., and is a large stockholder of the James H. Cranwell company of this place. Mr. Cranwell has been a resident of this place for the past two years, and is especially popular and well liked by his many friends. Quite a number of presents were received, among them being two $200 checks from Mr. J. H. Cranwell, president of the company here, and Mr. T. G. Cranwell, president of the Continental Canning company, of New York City, also one from Dr. and Mrs. J. B. Barnett, the bride's parents. The bride's dress was Duchess satin and trimmed in rare old family lace. Her veil was caught in her hair with a diamond brooch, being a present from the groom. After an extensive eastern tour they will occupy the handsome residence on Pope avenue, built and furnished by the groom.

Subscribe for the News, NOW:

TATESVILLE.

Special to the News.

The last few days have been warm like spring. The sun has melted the snowflakes away.

Gardening is talked of but the early bird will find frost in his nest yet.

There was a sudden death in Gruett last week. A person unknown to the writer came there last week and got work for himself and son and worked a few days. He went out after a day's work to get some wood and failed to return. Parties went to look for him and found him dead with his feet upon a log and head on the ground and a bunch of grass in his hand. They supposed he died from heart trouble.

Dr. Ross lives in Hog Jaw Valley where turnip greens grow all the year, and is a good blacksmith and you can't beat him and you needn't try.

Misses Carrie Tate and Angie Ross were guests of Mrs. Louise White last week.

S. M. Ross was the guest of A. A. Ransome Feb. 19th and it was snowing. Seven years ago on the same date he was at the same place and it was snowing then.

Misses Angie Ross and Carrie Tate were guests of Miss Hester Layne last week.

H. M. Layne is on the sick list.

The bugger man got sick last week. It has been traditionally taught to the children if they did had the bugger-man would get them when they died. When the children heard he was sick they felt a great relief in the hope that he would die and their life long dread would pass away.

Lafayette Williams was very sick this week and had to call in a physician.

Henry Barker was out from Dibrell College visiting home folks and mingling with his friends last week and didn't leave me out.

A certain fellow went up on Nubbins Hill sparking and as he was returning something squalled like a cat near him and he certainly came home and didn't have to be told.

Misses Hester Layne, Mamie Tate, and Louise White were guests of Miss Ethel Ransome Sunday.

T. T. Tate brought in a nice lot of furs last week.

George Ross was on our streets last week.

Mrs. Janie Barker called at the post-office last week.

Aunt Sally gave us a call last week and is still enjoying life.

The cowboy of Tatesville is going to start out telling fortunes.

James Turner came in and got a package of the staff of life. He reports lots of improvements in his vicinity.

J. W. Bryant bought a Spanish jack last week, the sire and dam of which were both imported and registered thoroughbred black Spanish.

A certain fellow left for Texas last week. He had some hogs fattening and when he left he turned them out to live on Irish potatoes till berries came in.

R. L. Brown tested the mud last week Grover Savage of Gage, was here on business last week.

L. V. Scott and Mr. Hillis of Warren county, were guests of J. L. White Sunday.

The stove mill resumed work last week.

G. B. Barker, J. H. Overturf and Allen Smith are on the sick list.

We had turnips for dinner today, and thought it was Cold Wave's big turnip that he lost his wife behind.

When I was young I wished I was a man, now that I am a man I wish I was a boy, when I am old I will wish I was dead and had never been born.

Watchman.

Entertained Willing Workers.

Tracy City, Tenn., March 3.—Mrs. A. C. Alexander entertained the Willing Workers Thursday afternoon. Refreshments were served in three courses. The society made a contribution for an unfortunate family who lost their house and contents by fire a few days ago.

Invaluable for Rheumatism.

I have been suffering for the past few years with a severe attack of rheumatism and found that Ballard's Snow Liniment was the only thing that gave me satisfaction and tended to alleviate my pains. March 24, 1902, John C. Degnan, Kinsman, Ills. 25c, 50c and $1.00. Sold by Sequachee Supply Store.

Federal Jury.

The following have been selected for duty for United States Court, April term: W. E. Snodgrass, Pikeville; J. S. M. Ingersoll, So. Pittsburg; J. E. Meyers, Jasper; Frank S. Ferguson, Pikeville; G. D. Collins, South Pittsburg.

Go Get Him, Girls.

Mill May wants to marry.—McEwen, Tenn., New Era.

CASTORIA.

Be sure the Kind You Have Always Bought

of

MONEY TO LOAN

ON IMPROVED FARMS in Marion county for 3 or 5 years, with privilege of renewal at low rate of interest.

NO EXPENSE ATTACHED TO MAKING LOAN.

APPLY TO A. R. HALL, Atty., JASPER, TENN.

HICKS CHAPEL.

Special to the News.

After so much snow, rain and ice we are enjoying these nice sunny days.

Jim Brimer and wife are recovering from a severe attack of la grippe.

Mrs. Bert Holland died Monday and was buried at the Teague cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Sunday school is progressing nicely after so much severe weather.

Messrs. Tom Hickson and Ira Bridges took dinner with Bryson Brimer one day last week.

Misses Ella Graham and Lillie Grayson returned Monday after an extended visit at Jasper.

Misses Mary Brock went to Whitwell Friday shopping.

Harrison Pickett called on George Vandergriff Saturday.

J. L. Vandergriff was visiting at Daus last week.

Foster Pickett who has been in Uncle Sam's service for the past three years, has returned home much to the delight of his many friends.

Mrs. Mary Brock and Miss Sarah Pickett were visiting their sister Mrs. J. L. Vandergriff last Saturday.

John Dempsey and Jim Ridge were calling in Owl Hollow one day this week.

Foster Pickett and sister, Miss Lucetta, were visiting at Mr. Brimer's Tuesday afternoon.

Messrs. Green and Bill Powell attended Sunday school here Sunday.

Jackson Brimer was calling at Mr. Barber's one day this week.

Messrs. W. H. Layne and Wood Wilson were calling at Mr. Pickett's Sunday afternoon.

Misses Martha and Pearl Bond, Lucetta and Alice Pickett were the admired guests of R. C. Pickett Sunday.

R. C. Pickett is all smiles. It is a girl.

There will be church at Hickory Grove Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p. m. by Rev. G. W. Paul.

Joe Grayson and family were visiting B. H. Hudson last Sunday. Likewise Leo Easterly and wife and Mr. Jesse Williams from Mexico.

A Chicago Alderman Owes His Election to Chamberlain's Cough Remedy.

"I can heartily and conscientiously recommend Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for affections of the throat and lungs," says Hon. John Shenick, 220 So. Peoria St., Chicago. "Two years ago during a political campaign I caught cold after being overheated, which irritated my throat and I was finally compelled to stop, as I could not speak aloud. In my extremity a friend advised me to use Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I took two doses that afternoon and could not believe my senses when I found the next morning that the inflammation had largely subsided. I took several doses that day, kept right on talking through the campaign, and thank this medicine that I won my seat in the Council." This remedy is for sale by all druggists.

Deaths at Tracy City.

TRACY CITY, Tenn., March 3.—Mrs. R. Johnson died at Coalmont yesterday. She was a highly respected lady.

Miss Hall, niece of section foreman John Hall, died Monday.

The twin children of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Patton died Monday.

Cured Consumption.

Mrs. W. B. Evans, Charwater, Kan., writes: "My husband lay sick for three months. The doctors said he had quick consumption. We procured a bottle of Ballard's Horehound Syrup, and it cured him. That was six years ago and since then we have always kept a bottle in the house. We cannot do without it. For coughs and colds it has no equal." 25c, 50c and $1.00. For sale by Sequachee Supply Store.

NOTICE.

I will be at Jasper on Monday and Friday of each week. All parties desiring dental work will please call at the Hughes House.

N. B. MOORE, DENTIST.

ROUPE.

Special to the News.

The weather seems like spring time.

Rev. Hatfield preached at the Bromley school house Sunday evening and at the Drum Sunday night.

Mrs. McNabb gave a party Saturday night.

Allen Pyburn visited his father-in-law Sunday at Kelly Ferry.

Miss Cella Bromley visited Mrs. Lizzie Baker, her sister, Sunday eve.

Mrs. Mabel Pyburn is still improving.

Mrs. Mattie Hartman is visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Newsome at Kelly's Ferry.

G. M. Ransome visited his daughters at Roope, Mrs. Pyburn and Mrs. Cora Bromley, Saturday.

Miss Lizzie Sanders gave a party Saturday night entertaining a small crowd.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Loach visited Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Bromley Sunday evening.

Wonder why Ed Newsome and Ed Doyle bought so much candy Sunday. They surely were going to see their girls.

Mr. Brumley loaded props Saturday night and had them hauled to the mines by the engine. The roads are so bad he couldn't haul them to the mines with his teams.

Wonder if Ed Doyle still hangs his hat on the rack at Mr. Bailey's.

Miss Ella McDonald and Mr. George Pyburn were married Sunday.

Mr. Bates has moved to Mr. Griffith's house.